

Oneida County Senior Center
Advisory Committee Meeting
100 W Keenan Street
Rhinelander WI 54501

November 2, 2017

Call to order: Jeff called the meeting to order

Present: All committee members but Walt

Approval of today's agenda: Carolyn and Dee

Approval of October minutes: Melody and Dee

No guests present

Date of next meeting DECEMBER 7 2017 at 1230

Activity coordinators report: See attached. Discussion on podcasts beginning December 13. Discussion followed regarding the purchase of Home Theater System with a list of preferred units to complete the system. A list has been attached. A discussion with Jack of the IT department to be completed so that it is in compliance with Center requirements.

The Christmas party has been scheduled for December 14, cost of $16.00, to be held at the Hideout Steak House with cocktails at 4 and dinner at 5. Dinner will be served buffet style. Sign up by December 5.

Discussion of the Hodag Light Show December 14 to 17 to be held at Hodag Park from 4:30 to 8 pm. Signup to work with Stephanie.

Discussed the need to lineup speakers for Alive to Life as soon as possible with a few suggestions already to include Jeremy Holtz of the DNR, Kevin Kohen of Foster Smith, Ray Reiser on Native culture from Tree Haven, Bill Kehl on Musical instruments, Doug Moore of Creative Pursuits on Agafes. Other suggestions included Consumer protection, Learning in Retirement speakers, University speakers. The sharing experiences such as Stoxen's Pharmacist who will speak on November 9. Funding and suggestions needed from Forest and Vilas county.

We will have Gobble Gobble bingo on November 22 from 1030 to 1130, featuring timely November trivia.

Items for December agenda: Committee member terms, walking stick program, Older American Act, use of meeting room upstairs, zumba reimbursement, trips costs, home stereo system, Hodag light show speakers and costs for Alive to Life

Adjournment Dee and Brian

Secretary Carolyn Caron